"To everything there is a season"

—Ecclesiastes 3:1

*"But if in your thought
you must measure time
into seasons,
let each season encircle
all the other seasons.
And let today
retrace the past
with remembrance
and the future
with longing."*

Dedication

To Lillian M. Quimby

To express our appreciation for your interest in our many activities, We, the Class of 1968, dedicate our yearbook to you, Lillian M. Quimby. During our years at the Academy, we have come to know you as a teacher, friend, and adviser.

In Appreciation

Ann R. Garland

Fielda D. Calderwood

Arthur E. Berlin

We, the Class of 1968, wish to thank you who have especially helped us during our four years at Pinkerton.

Donald E. Noseworthy

To Everything there is a Season

We, the Class of 1968, have spent a season of our lives at Pinkerton. This has been a season not only of learning but also of fun.

To us, in years to come, the Critic will be a pleasant romp through past seasons, a chance to reminisce and hear once more the distant tower bell, and to remember our times of work, our times of laughter, and our times of relaxation.

May future classes hold as fond a memory as we of their season spent at Pinkerton.

The graduates salute an outstanding administrative team

Our season at the Academy has been one that we will fondly remember because of the cooperation and guidance of Mr. Hackler and Mr. Knowles. They have given unselfishly of their time and talents to the Class of 1968.

Critic Staff

The Literary Staff is a group of seniors, who, under the direction of Miss Abbott and the editors, prepare the yearbook. They have spent many hours writing and planning in order to make this yearbook a memorable one.

Also contributing to the yearbook are the members of the Business Staff who have solicited from the area's businessmen the ads which make the Critic possible.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Pinkerton upperclassmen who have shown qualities of character, leadership, scholarship, and service attain the highest honor Pinkerton may give—membership in the National Honor Society.

Each year, the N.H.S. conducts a tutoring service for P.A. students and supervises the Book Fair in the cafeteria. This year, N.H.S. sponsored a drive to send articles to the servicemen and civilians in Vietnam. This group, advised by Miss Beane, is one of Pinkerton's most active clubs.

The Pinkerton N.H.S. was represented in the state N.H.S. by Kathleen Mitchell, who served as president, and Susan Bangs, a delegate-at-large.

Under the able direction of Mr. Hutchins, the football band aroused school spirit early in the fall with its half-time performances at football games. Soon the band was transformed from a colorful marching unit into a concert group preparing music for the Christmas Concert.

As band members returned from Christmas vacation, Mr. Hutchins greeted them with spring concert music. Many band members also participated in the dance band which played popular jazz compositions.

With the coming of warm weather, the band could be heard outside practicing for the Memorial Day parades, which ended a successful year.

Band, and Glee Club

The Pinkerton Glee Club proved its talent in two successful concerts, with added musical enjoyment present when the Glee Club performed with the Concert Band in December. Their rendition of old familiar carols and Christmas music received great acclaim for one of the best performances at PA. In the spring, the Glee Club sang modern popular tunes to the accompaniment of the percussion combo. On February 5, the Glee Club hosted the Defiance College Choir from Ohio. Their concert was enjoyed by both the Pinkerton students and the townspeople.

Holding the flags high, the color guard led the band to football games and parades. With precision, the flag bearers marched onto the field to start each home game with a salute to the flag.

Strutting behind them, the majorettes performed snappy routines to the tunes of the band. Canes, lassos, capes, and giant pencils made the half-time routines something different and exciting.

CHEERLEADERS GO, P.A.

Our Pinkerton cheerleaders, in their new uniforms, have added color and power-packed enthusiasm at pep rallies, football and basketball games. They certainly gave of their time and effort, not only to the school, but also to help spread P.A. spirit throughout the student body. With new cheers to learn and traditional cheers to rehearse, school practices became a place both to gain precision and to make lasting friendships.

With pride and appreciation, we realize that cheering is an important part of our school life.

Junior Prom Theme . . .

With wood, paint, and paper flowers, the Class of 1968 created a Polynesian Paradise. Blue waters rippled upon white sand, and a golden Hawaiian sun set in the blaze of red light. A huge tropical volcano smoked in the background. Native shields decorated the walls and a mural of bright flowers proclaimed the theme of the prom. Light filtered through the blue and white streamers and bathed the scene in a soft, romantic glow.

The class officers, joined by the Trustees, Mr. and Mrs. Hackler, Mr. and Mrs. Knowles, and Mr. Berlin, formed a receiving line in front of the grass huts and shields. The Robert Hutchin's Quartet provided the music for dancing and for the traditional grand march.

The highlight of the evening in Paradise was the coronation of the Prom Queen, Christine Hatfield. For the magic evening, the decorated throne, the silver crown, and the red velvet robe belonged to her. The members of her court were Kathleen DeRemer, Susan Dolph, Melissa Varney, Kathleen Mitchell, Madeline Smith, and Patricia Low.

The beautiful night ended and we left our Polynesian Paradise, but we shall always cherish the memory of our Junior Prom.

Seniors Entertain With . . .

Once upon a time a play entitled "Hip Hippie Hooray" was written by a man called David Rogers. The Senior class formed a play cast, an art committee, a stage crew, and ticket and publicity committees. Four weeks later, the curtain rose and the audience was taken on a sightseeing tour of Haight-Ashbury. The hippie jungle was thronged with a turbaned Guru who spoke words of wisdom, the bearded commander of the hippies, and of course, the long-haired hippies themselves. A concerned Midwestern girl, her distraught parents, curious tourists,
and real estate agents, ventured into the hippie
jungle. The audience, turned on by the paper flowers, Indian music, and psychedelic lights,
left with laughter and understanding.

LETTERMEN

The Lettermen are an integral part of the Pinkerton scene. Under the direction of Mr. Root, they follow the Lettermen's tradition of service to the school by supervising the cafeteria, assisting at assemblies, and sponsoring social events. The boys who proudly wear the Pinkerton "P" are fine examples to the student body.

LETTERWOMEN

Becoming a member of the Letterwomen's Association is the desire of each Academy girl. To achieve this goal, a girl must participate in numerous extra-curricular activities. Upon receiving her letter, a Letterwoman has the responsibility of setting an example for the other students. As the Association is primarily a service group, one may find a letterwoman selling shakers to promote school spirit or selling tickets at a football or basketball game.

Juniors Succeed In . . .

"Our Hearts Were Young and Gay"

As the lights dimmed and the curtain rose, the Class of '68 made its theatrical debut in Cornelia Otis Skinner's "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay." The classic play, which provided a refreshing change from the usual family comedy, was concerned with two young girls taking an ocean voyage to Europe, and involved everything from a man overboard, to measles and bed bugs. However, all turned out well, and both the ocean voyage and the play were a success.

We thank Miss Garland for capably steering us through the choppy waters of our first dramatic encounter and Miss Gaffney and the Art department for the creation of the ship's cabin.

Behind the scenes, the entire class joined the hustle and bustle of selling tickets and securing props and costumes from the 1930's. We worked together as a class to ensure the success of our first production. When the curtain fell at the end of the second voyage, we were thoroughly convinced of our dramatic ability.

The French Club's goal is to acquaint its members with French culture and to give them an opportunity to speak French outside the classroom. Keeping this goal in mind, the club has planned a program of films, skits, and a study of French art or French literature consisting of lectures by guest speakers and reports by the club members. The club hopes that such a program will foster interest in the French language and an appreciation of French culture.

The purpose of the Spanish Club is to give its members an opportunity to converse in Spanish outside the classroom and an opportunity to gain an informal exposure to the language. This year the club is planning to hold joint meetings with the Spanish Clubs of surrounding schools in order to give its members a chance to socialize with other students interested in Spanish. The club's adviser is Mr. Bostock.

The Big Red Provides Many

FOOTBALL

This year, the Big Red football team, led by Captain Michael Morin, was an all-around green ball club. At one time, this team had thirteen underclassmen in the starting line-up. It was a growing year, discouraging because most of the victories didn't show up on the scoreboard. However, under the fine direction of Coaches Johnson, Sciacca, and Paquette, the Big Red "sucked up their guts" and gave P. A. a season worth talking about. For the first time in five years, our team managed to hold down powerful Exeter to a tie. The most spectacular victory was the 14-0 upset of undefeated Monadnock. The forfeited Winnacunnet game gave the hard-hitting team a 4-4-1 season record. A thrilling end to a successful season was the naming of Robert Bonnar and Glen Fellows to the All-State first team and Michael Demers to the All-State second team.

Basketball

This year the Big Red played its first full schedule against class L competition and ended its season with four wins and fourteen losses. The new, keener competition brought out a new challenge as the Big Red competed against some of the best teams in the state.

The team's ability came through in such games as the 54-52 loss to Bishop Bradley and the victory over St. Thomas Aquinas when the Big Red had trailed almost the entire game. The success and victories of the season were the result of the players' willingness to work hard and their ability to perform together as a team.

The J.V. team was an exceptionally good squad ending its season with nine wins and nine losses. Mr. Paquette anticipates that the talent of this year's J.V. team and plenty of hard work can build next year's varsity into a squad having a better season and playing many close ball games.

The girls' basketball teams opened the 1968 season on January 2, against Nashua High School. Led by Captain Michele Gallien, the Varsity went on to finish the season with five wins and six losses.

Their 34-31 victory over Exeter, and a 38-27 victory over Timberlane are only a few of the victories which qualified the team for the league tournament held at Winnacunnet on March 9.

Although the team placed third in the tournament including Winnacunnet, Salem, Sanborn, Timberlane, and Oyster River, the victory over the Blue Devilettes of Salem highlighted the season.

The Junior Varsity finished the season with two wins and nine losses. However, their 19-17 victory over the Nashua Junior Varsity and their aggressiveness in playing livened up the season.

FIELD HOCKEY

The girls at P.A. are always ready to play, field hockey that is. Take the Class of '68 for example.

We came running out to the field ready for every game our freshman year. By some stroke of misfortune, however, we lost all our games.

But, we didn't let that little piece of bad luck stop us. Our sophomore year, we won the trophy!

The next year, the Class of '68 rested up a bit, but we still gave the Seniors a hard time. We did let them win the trophy, however.

By the senior year, the girls from the Class of '68, led by Patricia Goodwin, captain, and Susan Dolph, manager, had grown to be experts in the art of field hockey. Even though we were still unsure of the rules and had trouble figuring out whether or not the goalie could go past the 50 yd. line, the senior girls won the trophy and defeated both the rollicking men faculty and the frolicking Senior boys.

BASEBALL

The most exciting phase of the 1967 season was Pinkerton Academy's participation in the State Baseball Tournament. The Big Red, led by Captain Greg Piper, had a long, hard struggle to qualify for the tournament, but under the fine coaching of Mr. Root, they did it with a fantastic 10 win and 3 loss record. After winning two exciting games in the preliminaries, Pinkerton advanced to the State finals. There the team faced their arch rival, the Winnacunnet Warriors, who were the 1966 State Champions. The spirited Big Red were determined to win the title. Showing the fine pitching, batting, and fielding that had given them such a successful season, the team defeated Winnacunnet and won the 1967 Class "I" State Baseball Championship. Pinkerton is proud of its fine baseball players and the honor that they brought to the school.

TRACK

The track team enjoyed a winning season last year under the guidance of Coach Barksdale. The team participated in the State Class "I" Division Meet where the highlight was edging Monadnock Regional by one-half point to take third place. Those receiving medals were: Robert Bonnar, Richard Caplette, Gregory Finnegan, Tracy Omar, Gary Porter, Owen Smith, and Gregory True. Owen Smith represented Pinkerton in the State Meet of Champions where he placed second, and in the New England Meet where he placed ninth.
